Excerpt: .cheek to him again, And wooes him still to stay. Is she not like a maiden coy Pressed by some amorous-breathing boy? Though coy, she courts him too: Winding away her slender form, She will not have him woo so warm, And yet will have him woo! George Dari.ey. LXVIII O Swallow, Swallow, flying, flying South, Fly to her, and fall upon her gilded eaves, And tell her, tell her, what I tell to thee. O tell her, Swallow, that thou knowest each, That bright and fierce and fickle is the South, And dark and true and tender is the North. O Swallow, Swallow, if I could follow, and light Upon her lattice, I would pipe and trill, And cheep and twitter twenty million loves. O were I thou that she might take me in, And lay me on her bosom, and her heart Would...
