We may add that Fulvia was not a woman to bear that a Concubine should receive the honours due to the lawful wife, during her husband's progress. She was too haughty to follow, in a separate coach, the litter of the favorite Cytheris. Let us confirm the conjecture of Bosius and Lipfius. If it had been said in the Letter to Atticus, Cytberidem portal alteram uxorem, there would have been nothing but what would agree with other expressions which are to be met with in the second Philippic. At etiam quadam loco facit us effe vo-t of your Actress: what! do I bely you How wretched is it that you cannot deny what is most disgraceful to confess! If you were not ashamed of behaving so before the municipal towns, did not your veteran troops make you blush For what soldier was there who did not see her at Brundisium Which of them knew not that she came so many days journey to congratulate you And which of them was not sorry to find out so late what a scandalous leader he had followed You again traversed Italy, in company with the same Actress. While Cesar was, at Alexandria, invested a second time with the Dictatorship, Marc Antony was made General of the Horse, and committed a thousand extortions at Rome: he proceeded by degrees to the enormous audaciousness of selling Pompcys goods by auction. By this means he became possessed of the house and furniture...
