Fifty-fourth Virginia Regiment, Camp near Chattanooga, Tenn. , September 25, 1863. Captain: I have the honor to submit the following report of the part my regiment took iuu the battles of the 19th anil 20th instant, near Cnckamauga Creek: On the evening of the 18th, as we approached the creek from La Fayette the enemy was discovered in a large corn-field on the opposite side. Our battery was put in position, and the brigade formed in line of battle to the left on a rocky ridge. A brisk skirmish was kept up until after dark, in which a portion of General Grades brigade was engaged. My regiment was afterward moved down near the creek and put into position below Colonel Kellys brigade, in order to support him in the event of an attack during the night. On the morning of the 19th,...
