The Library of America, United States, 1999. Hardback. Book Condition: New. New.. 206 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Pulitzer Prize-winning historian Rakove (history and American studies, Stanford U.) made the selections and supplies notes for this one-volume collection of Madison s works. Arranged chronologically, it contains almost 200 documents written between 1772, the year after Madison s graduation from Princeton, and his death in 1836. Included are all 29 of Madison s contributions to The Federalist as well as speeches and letters that illuminate his role in framing and ratifying the Constitution. Also represented are early writings on religious freedom; correspondence with figures such as Washington, Jefferson, Hamilton, and Monroe; writings from his terms as secretary of state and president; and letters and essays written during retirement.
