OCLC Number: 54359303 Excerpt: . . . 4 The Subcommittee on Fisheries Conservation, Wildlife and Oceans is currently re-viewing the MMPA to determine what changes need to be made during this reau-thorization process. Subcommittee Chairman Wayne Gilchrest and I introduced H. R. 2693, the Marine Mammal Protection Act Amendments of 2003, on July 10, 2003. Section 7 of this bill authorizes the Secretary of Commerce to conduct re-search on the non-lethal removal and control of nuisance pinnipeds. This hearing will better define the scope of these interaction issues and hopefully, from the testi-mony, we can determine if additional changes to the MMPA are necessary. The MMPA is an interesting law because in many ways it is more restrictive than the Endangered Species Act. However, unlike that statute, its coverage is uniform regardless of whether a population of marine mammal species is growing, decreas-ing, or stable. There is no distinction. One of the primary goals of the MMPA is to restore or maintain marine mammal populations to their optimum sustainable pop-ulation. In addition, the MMPA requires the same protections for all marine mam-mals regardless of their population...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
