Kaufman, of Texas, on the Subject of the Mexican War: Delivered in the House of Representatives, U. S., June 20, 1846 The Bill providing for the reduction of the tariff to a revenue standard being under consideration in the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union - Mr. Kaufman addressed the committee as follows: Mr. Chairman: I congratulate the friends of the revenue principle on the favorable auspices under which they have entered upon the discussion of this bill. It is known to you and the country, that one of the favorite arguments of the friends of the protective policy at the North, has been, that it would be suicidal in the United States to permit the introduction of British manufactures into this country, while England closed her ports to our grain and breadstuffs. This argument, which has done more than all others beside to make a protective tariff popular with the farmers of the North has been lately silenced; for we have just received the gratifying intelligence that the old and aristocratic corn laws of England have been repealed, and that henceforth our farmers will find a market for the products of their soil in ports hitherto closed to them. To preserve that market, it is evidently our policy to reciprocate, as far as we can, and to remove all restrictions upon imports from abroad, so far as is not incompatible with raising the revenue necessary to keep the wheels of the Federal Government in motion. But, Mr. Chairman, fruitful and inviting as is the question now legitimately under consideration, and deeply interested as my constituents...
