Corp. (4th ed.) 980, and authorities cited. This statute imposes such a liability on the city of Topeka when it changes an established grade. If, in such an attempt, the city authorities fairly comply with all the obligations and requirements of the law with respect to the appraisal of damages, we agree with council for the city that in such an event the only remedy of the aggrieved property owner is by an appeal from the award. Notice to the owner is of the essence of all proceedings affecting property, and the vital complaint here is B I I that...
